Award Descriptions

Professional Standard of Excellence Award - Service to field of sexuality by a professional

This award is presented to a member or non-member of AAASECT who has worked extensively to represent or advance the field of human sexuality through activities including, but not limited to, clinical programs or other original clinical contributions; the development and implementation of sexuality education curriculum; scientific research; and art, print, radio, television or internet media contributions. The recipient of this Award will be an individual who is recognized by his/her peers as a competent and accomplished colleague, an expert in his/ her field, and an exemplary bearer of the standards of professional and personal ethics as well as the standard of excellence in achievement.

Distinguished Service to AAASECT Award - Service to the organization

This award is presented to an AAASECT member in good standing who is certified in at least one area and has worked to promote the mission of AAASECT, advocating for sexual health through the development and advancement of sexuality education, counseling or therapy. This individual will have served the organization through activities including, but not limited to, recruitment of new members; presentation of a paper or workshop at AAASECT meetings; serving on the Board of Directors, a committee or task force; developing publications for or about the organization; assistance in the development of AAASECT policy; and representation of AAASECT in the public sector.

Humanitarian Award - Service to field of sexuality by private citizen

This award is presented to an individual or group who has contributed to the field of human sexuality through some private endeavor, charitable event(s), public awareness campaign, sex-positive educational offering or political platform and who has received national and/or international recognition for the contribution.

Sexuality Educator Award

This award is presented to a current AAASECT certified sexuality educator. This award recognizes individuals who have made long standing contributions, outstanding achievements, or otherwise had a major impact in one or more areas of sexuality education. These areas of impact may include, but are not limited to, teaching in the community, teaching in higher education, raising public awareness of sexual issues or public advocacy / lobbying policy-makers. The nominee should have 2 letters of support from individuals familiar with their work.

AAASECT Audiovisual Award

This award is for the producer(s) of a film, video, or DVD that makes a significant contribution to AAASECT's vision of sexual health and to the clinical and educational standards of the field. The nominated audiovisual can be developed for a professional audience or for a general audience, and must have been produced in 2018. To nominate an audiovisual, send contact information for a review copy to be sent to the committee members (5) along with contact information for the producer and distributor. Include a brief description of why the audiovisual is worthy of the award.

AASECT Book Award

This award is presented to the author(s) of a book that makes a significant contribution to AASECT's vision of sexual health and to the clinical and educational standards of the field. The nominated book can be written for a professional audience or for a general audience and must have been published in English in 2018. You must include the contact information for the author(s) and publisher and a brief description of why the book is worthy of the award. Each committee member must receive a copy of the book to read/review no later than February 24, 2019. (Please see list and mailing addresses of committee members below.)

AASECT Award for Integrative Approaches to Sex Therapy

This award is for creative applications of an integrative and interactive approach to sexual issues in clinical work with individuals, couples, groups and/or supervisees of all ages, genders and other diversities. This award may be considered for any practical or theoretical body of work, including (but not limited to) trainings, retreats, online courses, videos or a published paper or book. Nominees should be AASECT Certified Sex Therapists or AASECT Certified Sexuality Counselors who have demonstrated a clinical consciousness that is multidimensional: inclusive of some combination of physical, emotional, cognitive and/or spiritual dimensions of sexual experience, along with relational and/or social contexts.
